

Leicester, Feb. 11/69

Dear "friend Webb" -

Take my best wishes and aspirations for your safe and comfortable voyage, and return to your home. I know you will have pleasant and even "sunny" memories of our country, & of many in it, spite of the hard usage you had in some quarters. May even that prove to have brought more good than evil with it, in the love and kindness and abiding friendships to which it introduced you.

— And don't give up the thought of another visit to America. There are Several corners & spots (not to say people), worth seeing, which (& whom) you haven't seen yet!

Don't fail to remember me to Alfred, with very sincere regards. We should be glad to see him, too, in America.

— If James Haughton
yet remembers me, I should be glad you would give him my very true regards.

Affectionately Yr friend
Sam. May Jr

ms. B. 1. 6 v. 10, p. 71